Nancy R. Jones, "Jonesie," will be teaching both jumping and flat classes on Friday evenings:

Jonesie is a life-long resident of Morris County and has been involved in the equine industry for most of her life. From retraining ex-racehorses to attending horse shows and foxhunts, Jonesie's plethora of knowledge and experience has proven to be instrumental in helping many levels of riders to become better horsemen. Specifically, Jonesie caters to those individuals looking to further their education in the horsemanship surrounding hunt seat equitation, hunters, jumpers, and basic dressage. Her philosophy is a simple one: the horse should always come first. Prior to establishing her own Logan's Brook Inc., Jonesie managed a breeding and training stable for Clarence and Tania Nagro for over twenty-five years. She has trained and turned out many successful equestrians, most notably Jessica Suida, who rode in the Nation's Cup and competed for the Norwegian Equestrian team.

Terry Heide will be teaching D-1 and D-2 classes on Friday afternoons:

Terry fell in love with horses as a little girl, but didn't begin to ride and take lessons until she was thirteen. Riding was sporadic until she moved to Gillette NJ, and discovered Lord Stirling Stable. Terry began to take lessons with Mr. Case and Alice Hahn. She rode on the Adult Drill Team in the late 1980s and then bought her own horse, a palomino named Junior. She returned to teaching in Long Hill Township and worked as a middle school Reading teacher until retiring two years ago. Terry came back to lessons at Lord Stirling Stable while still teaching and was able to share some of her experiences with her students. She has ridden in a variety of classes both English and Western and has enjoyed the mental and physical challenges of each class. Terry has also enjoyed volunteering as a class assistant in D1 and D2 classes during the past three years and helping in the barn.
